AT THE DEGGINGER FARM

SECOND ANNUAL SALE

NOVEMBER 10, 1927

ALBANY, MISSOURI

ANNOUNCEMENT

No herd in America is better fortified with richness of pedigree than that of J. H. Degginger. No stronger combination of fashionable pedigree and great individuality is to be found. The show records of the past two years proves the merit of the cattle as individuals. This catalog of Mr. Degginger's second annual sale proves the worth of the herd from a pedigree standpoint. It is not alone that the animals are of fashionable families. It is also that the names of the leading bulls of the breed are to be found in the places where they mean the most. The show herd, all but one of which are offered in this sale, have made a record surpassed by none this year. No better bred lot of show cattle has been offered at auction in my memory. Every other animal that will be sold is a first-class breeding unit and most of them would require only a few months' fitting to make them the equal of the average of the cattle in show herds the country over.

The sale will be on the farm. It will be a sale for breeders, large or small, who wish to improve their herds, where they can buy the best at their own price. No better opportunity has been offered for many years.

WILL JOHNSON, of the Shorthorn World.

OUR STATEMENT

We take pleasure in inviting the farmers and breeders of America to the second annual sale from our richly bred herd of Shorthorns. Our herd has grown to a large extent. In founding it, we chose females of the highest quality that had the most desirable pedigrees, pedigrees that show the animals to be of the most fashionable families and to be descended from the animals that have made and are keeping these families popular.

We are proud of the great show record our herd has made since we started showing two years ago. We are especially pleased with this year's record, because nearly every individual on the circuit was bred in our own herd.

We wish the public to know our herd. So we offer this great collection for sale. Please note that our entire show herd, with one exception, a bull that we are keeping, will be for a herd bull, offered in this sale. You will have an opportunity to see their dams and the sire of some of them on sale day.

We have tried to make this as good or the best offering of Shorthorns of a decade. We trust they will be appreciated at a fair value. Buyers will be welcome to them at whatever prices paid.

It is our intention and it will be our endeavor to produce as good a show herd each year and each year the show cattle will be offered for sale with other products of our herd.

J. H. DEGGINGER, Owner.

SCOTTY MILNE, Manager.
